DEADLOCK IN LONDON CONFERENCE PRIZE FIGHTER CONFESSES MURDER

M'COY CONFESSES SLAYING WOMAN POLICE ASSERT

Former Welterweight Champion, Long in Public Eye, Alleged Murderer.

BULLETIN—LOS ANGELES, Aug. 14.—Kid McCoy confessed to the murder of Mrs. Mors to his sister shortly after the shooting. Assistant Captain of Detectives Herman Cline announced this forenoon. McCoy had told the police Mrs. Mors suicided.

CLAIMS SUICIDE.
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 14.—Norman Selby, known in flistic circles as Kid McCoy, held for the murder of Mrs. Theresa Mors, told the detectives last night the woman committed suicide and evidence found tended to corroborate the statement.

Officers said, however, the bullet found in her head, from a .32 calibre revolver was fired from a weapon of the type found nearby McCoy in a hold-up of a brokerage office in the residential district which is said to have wounded two men. The woman carried a .45 said the officers.

INSANITY TO BE PLEA.
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 14.—Friends of McCoy said he will make a plea of insanity. McCoy declared he was crazed with grief and drink.

McCoy, almost simultaneously with the finding of the body of Mrs. Mors, was discovered in the West Lake residential shopping district and had invaded Mors antique shop. With a revolver in his hand, he held up the attendants and patrons and wounded W. G. Ross, a chance arrival. He went next door and slightly wounded Sam Schepp and his wife who had sought to reconcile Mors and his wife.

McCoy was captured running across the West Lake Park. He spoke incoherently but appeared dapper and confident today.

The desk sergeant said today that at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, shortly after Mrs. Mors' death, McCoy appeared at the Hollywood Police Station and asked to see Patrolman Pulsinger who had been called to a dinner party where Mors was present. Mrs. Mors and McCoy had gone to the party uninvited.

Informed that Pulsinger was out, McCoy said: "He will consider himself lucky when he reads the morning papers."

The police claim Mrs. Mors was

UNITED STATES SHIPS MUST BE KEPT UPON SEAS

Special House Committee Returns from European Trip To Give Policy.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Members of the Special House Committee investigating the Shipping Board have returned from an European inspection tour and are convinced that either a permanent shipping policy must be adopted or the Board must withdraw the vessels from the seas immediately.

Representative Davis said the whole organization is handicapped as the European idea is that the United States ships are in the service only temporarily.

It is said the committee will recommend a policy to maintain the marine lines permanently.

Tariff Act of 1922
For Liquor Violators

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Attorney General Stone has sent instructions to United States District Attorneys of the coast and border points to employ the tariff act of 1922 in prosecuting liquor smuggling cases. Section 593 provides for penalties of imprisonment and fines of $5,000.

One Leg Lost! Owner Wants to Find It

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—Waiter A. Nolan has asked radioamateurs to help him find a wooden leg he left in Oakland as security for a board bill for $14, a year ago. When he got the money he could not find the landlady. He valued his leg at $150.

DEMOCRATS IN SO. CAROLINA TO GO STRONG

Will Select Complete Ticket on August 26—Contest for U. S. Senator.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 14.—With nomination by the Democratic Party in this State equivalent to election, South Carolina Democrats will go to the polls August 26 to choose a complete ticket, from United States Senator down through the smallest county offices.

Principal public interest is held by the contest for nomination as United States Senator. Senator N. B. Dial, of Laurens, who is completing his first term and is seeking re-election, has three opponents. Congressman James F. Brynes, of Aiken, who was elected to the 62nd and each succeeding Congress, is one of them. Former Governor Cole L. Blease, a storm center of South Carolina politics for more than a dozen years, is another, and the third is John J. McManhan, former State Superintendent of Education, and now State Insurance Commissioner.

Governor Thomas G. McLeod, serving his first term, is opposed by John T. Duncan, a Columbia lawyer, who has offered for the office at various times for the last 20 years. Lieutenant Governor Edmund B. Jackson, of Wagener, is unopposed for re-election. The race for Congress will be run in five districts.

Japanese Editor Suggests Pact Against The Anglo-Saxons

TOKIO, Aug. 14.—That "the three orphans of the world," Japan, Germany and Russia, must unite for their common protection against Anglo-Saxon domination is the gist of an editorial appearing in the Yomiuri Shimbun, formerly a liberal journal but now one of the organs of the nationalistic elements.

"In international politics," said the Yomiuri, "there are three orphans in the world, Germany, Japan and Russia. Now they are isolated from each other, but the time may come when changing political conditions will require them to unite. It is likely that at some time an alliance, or relations approximating an alliance, will be affected between Japan and Russia. When the orphans are united it will strike consternation to the soul of Anglo-Saxondom."

ARMY OF JAPAN BE REORGANIZED

TOKIO, Aug. 14.—The Council of Marshals of the War Office today officially approved of the general outline of the army reorganization scheme calling for abolition of four divisions and the removal of another from Japan to Korea. Funds saved will be expended in expansion of the army aviation and purchase of modern weapons.

OLYMPIA, Aug. 14.—Ezra Meeker, Oregon trail blazer, forsook his ox team for the airplane and flew from Seattle to Rochester, Thurston county, to attend the Pioneers annual banquet.

DISAPPEARANCE OF PAYMASTER TO BE PROBED

SEATTLE, Aug. 14.—An inquiry into the disappearance of Lieut. Lester B. Karalle, Navy paymaster at Bremerton, has been reopened by orders of Secretary Wilbur.

Karalle disappeared several months ago. He and his wife left Bremerton and separated at Portland. She went East to Chicago and later returned here and secured a divorce. She stated when she and her husband left for Portland she did not know he was absconding. Karalle has not been heard from since parting from his wife in Portland.

HUNTING PARTY COMING NORTH

SEATTLE, Aug. 14.—C. Arthur Foss, with interests in Tacoma and Seattle, with a party of friends has left in the combination tug-yacht Foss No. 19, on a three week's hunting trip in Southeastern Alaska. The party will go as far as Skagway. Homer Otto, of Denver, big game hunter, is a member of the party.

Mate Legally Dead, Wife Gets Insurance

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 14.—Charles H. Tabler, missing nearly 14 years, is legally dead today. Records show Tabler deserted his wife at Port Moody, B. C., October 10, 1910. His death has never been established. But if he is alive the fact has escaped investigators for the Woodmen of the World, in which fraternal order he held insurance.

Circuit Judge Rossman, in deciding the case of Mrs. Clara E. Tabler against the insurance society, formally declared the man dead and ordered the W. O. W. to pay the $1,000 insurance her husband held, together with costs of the court action.

WILL SHE BE AMERICA'S FIRST WOMAN GOVERNOR?

Mrs. Marion A. Ferguson, of Temple, Texas, wife of ex-Governor James Ferguson, shown here with her two daughters, may be the first woman Governor in the United States. Her husband was impeached and driven from office as Governor, and she ran in the initial primaries this year to vindicate his name. She ran second, and under the Texas laws the two leading candidates are the only candidates in the runoff of the primaries. Ex-Governor Ferguson, who managed his wife's campaign, is leading the fight to secure the election for her.

WORLD FLIERS MAY HOP OFF ON TOMORROW

REYKJAVIK, Aug. 14.—The United States army globe fliers will hop off for Greenland tomorrow if the weather permits.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The destroyers Barry and Cochran have left for positions off Greenland to aid the fliers in the Atlantic flight.

LEAGUE ASSEMBLY WILL HEAR SPEECHES BY THREE PREMIERS

GENEVA, Aug. 14.—For the first time in the history of the League of Nations the heads of the three great European powers will attend the assembly here which opens September 1. Not only have Premiers MacDonald, Herriot and Mussolini announced their intention of coming, but it is expected all three will make important speeches. The lesser powers are expected to send their foreign ministers.

In view of the increased collaboration of the United States, more particularly with reference to opium and matters affecting the problem of reduction of armaments, the question is being asked at Geneva whether there is any likelihood of

NEW DANGER THREATENING PEACE PLANS

French and Germans Deadlocked in London Conference on Evacuation.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—A deadlock between the French and Germans on the time limit for military evacuation of the Ruhr is imperiling success of the International Conference. This was disclosed this afternoon after a hurried meeting of French, Belgian and German representatives with Premiers at the Downing Street office.

Premier Herriot, after returning to his hotel said: "The Allies are with us and we are in complete control of the situation."

Chancellor Marx visited Premier Herriot at the hotel, and United States Ambassador Kellogg and James A. Logan, Jr., American representative, rushed to the American Embassy and joined Owen D. Young, American expert, on the Dawes plan, for a consultation on complications arising.

The French insist on a year for evacuation with reductions only if special conditions warrant. The year is to begin with the signing of the agreement in London.

GERMANS WITH DELEGATES.
BERLIN, Aug. 14.—The Cabinet after a hurried session, declared in accord with the German delegates in London.

HUGHES SEES NO ALARM.
NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes returned today after a visit of one month in Europe. He expressed belief that all powers concerned will accept the Dawes report and it "will be put into effect very soon."

Secretary Hughes is of the opinion acceptance of the report does not hinge on the evacuation of the Ruhr region.

Yakima Fruit Plant Burns; Incendiarism Is Suspected

YAKIMA, Wash., Aug. 14.—The plant of the Pacific Produce Company burned to the ground last night, entailing a loss of $150,000. The incendiary theory is being investigated. This is the second large fire here this month.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Aug. 14.—The Postmaster today seized literature urging people to rebel against the order of President Coolidge making September 12 "Defense Day" and suggested using crepe instead of flags and observe the day as "Black Friday."

HOOVER OPENS CAL. CAMPAIGN

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 14.—Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover opening the national campaign in California last night said the people see success in the aspect of the mind of Coolidge.

Washington sending observers, either official or unofficial.

It is believed in Geneva that disarmament will constitute the great subject of this year's assembly debate. As one Swiss newspaper put it, England's recent repudiation of the League of Nations' provisional draft treaty of mutual assistance has resulted in the effectual burial of that treaty. It will be exhumed, undoubtedly, but only to serve as the basis of a general inquiry dedicated to the finding of some more suitable arrangement for the reduction of armaments.
